Share Your Knowledge with EJO

Are you passionate about advancing educational justice and equity? Do you have expertise in areas like teaching strategies, leadership, social-emotional learning, or community engagement? The Ed Justice Initiative (EJO) invites expert educators, leaders, and professionals to present at our ED Talks, workshops, and conferences.

Presenter Fees for EJO Events

We believe in compensating our expert presenters for their time, knowledge, and commitment to advancing educational justice. Below are the fees for participating in ED Talks, workshops, and conferences organized by the Ed Justice Initiative (EJO).

Why Present at EJO Events?

- Global Exposure: Share your expertise with an international community of educators and advocates.
- Professional Development: Gain recognition as an expert in your field.
- Networking Opportunities: Connect with like-minded professionals and build partnerships that can further your work.

We understand the value of your time and expertise, and the fees we offer are meant to acknowledge that while supporting the growth of EJO's mission in advancing educational justice.

What Our Presenters Are Saying:

“Presenting at the Ed Justice Initiative’s ED Talk was an incredibly rewarding experience. The audience was engaged and eager to learn, which made the conversation feel meaningful and impactful. The platform provided an opportunity for me to share my expertise with educators and leaders who are just as passionate about social justice and educational equity as I am. I felt truly supported throughout the process, and the feedback I received from participants was overwhelmingly positive. It's inspiring to be a part of such a forward-thinking initiative that is dedicated to creating real change in education. I look forward to future opportunities with EJO!"
